DETAILED ACTION

1. This Action is in response to applicant's correspondence of 05 June 2000.
2. Claims 1-15 are pending.

Drawings

3. This application, filed under former 37 CFR 1.60, lacks formal drawings. The informal drawings filed in this application are acceptable for examination purposes. When the application is allowed, applicant will be required to submit new formal drawings. In unusual circumstances, the formal drawings from the abandoned parent application may be transferred by the grant of a petition under 37 CFR 1.182.

Oath/Declaration

4. It does not identify the citizenship of each inventor.

It does not identify the city and either state or foreign country of residence of each inventor. The residence information may be provided on either on an application data sheet or supplemental oath or declaration.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Waters US 6564216 A.

5. As per claim 1, the limitation of a domain management (Server Manager Figure 1, element 201) system is disclosed by Waters (Column 3, lines 18-27). The limitation for requesting authentication from the party seeking access to the domain management system is disclosed by Waters see Column 5, lines 8-12; Column 9, lines 45-47. The limitation of a domain identification means for accepting and confirming identity of a domain name to be an active domain name is disclosed by Waters Column 5, lines 19-58; Column 7, lines 16-19. The limitation of a means for updating information (in central database) and confirming update by means of a message (that is, IP address and configurationally information sent to the client) is disclosed by Waters Column 5, lines 32 – 35 and lines 41-47. Claim 1 is rejected.

6. As per claim 2, the limitation that the updating procedure (information change means) resides on a server of an accredited registrar is disclosed by Waters Column 5, lines 44-46. Claim 2 is rejected.

7. As per claim 3, the limitation that the updating procedure (information change means) can directly access a shared registry system is disclosed by Waters see figure 2. Note that a number of DNS servers and DHCP servers share a common central database. Claim 3 is rejected.

8. As per claim 4, the limitation that the updating procedure (information change means) resides on a server coupled to a second server capable of direct access to a shared register is disclosed by Waters (see Figure 2, note client can go through a binding server or the DNS/DHCP servers to get to the server manager which then can go to the shared register (configuration database). Claim 4 is rejected.

9. As per claim 6, the limitation that the authoritative database (central database) is a shared registry system (see figure 2, element 204, note all updates for all DNS's are recorded in the central database). Claim 6 is rejected.

10. As per claim 7, the limitation of generating messages to acknowledging authentication of party seeking access to the domain management system, identifying active domain and issuing update requests is disclosed by Waters are performed by electronic messaging through the domain management system is disclosed by Waters Column 9, lines 5-18. Note this can include a graphics interface for user, or electronic messages for updating the central data base, validating user, or polling devices. Claim 7 is rejected.

11. As per claim 8, the limitation of a diagnostic utility engine (troubleshooter software) is disclosed by Water Column 9, lines 9-15. The operating system continually checks and analyzes the status of the system through electronic communication messages. Claim 8 is rejected.

12. As per claims 9-11, the limitation that the diagnostic utility performs troubleshooting on all parts of the system and report to the network administrator is disclosed by Waters Column 9, lines 5-35. Claims 9-11 are rejected.

13. As per claim 12, the limitation that the update engine resides on the accredited registrar (delta-logging facility in the central database Column 8, lines 23-24) is disclosed by Waters. Claim 12 is rejected.

Art Unit: 2135

14. As per claims 13-15, that the update software can reside on a server that directly access a shared registry, or on a server directly connected to a second server, or passing through a second server connected to the shared registry is disclosed by Waters see figure 2. Claim 13-15 are rejected.
